Session I: Reaching Communities: Strategies for Successful Education, Outreach, and Enrollment for Lead Hazard Control and Healthy Homes Grant Programs

Session Description: This session features a panel of experts who will share their successful strategies for education, outreach, and enrollment for lead hazard control and healthy homes grant programs. The panel will discuss effective methods for engaging communities, building partnerships, and delivering targeted messages to reach underserved populations.

Following the panel presentation, attendees will participate in round table workshop discussions with the panelists and other attendees. During these discussions, participants will have the opportunity to share their own experiences and challenges in education, outreach, and enrollment, and receive feedback and guidance from the experts.

By the end of this session, attendees will have gained valuable insights and practical strategies for developing successful education, outreach, and enrollment plans for lead hazard control and healthy homes grant programs. Participants will also have the opportunity to network with other professionals in the field and build relationships that can support ongoing success in their programs.

This session is ideal for program managers, community outreach coordinators, and anyone involved in the planning and implementation of education, outreach, and enrollment efforts for lead hazard control and healthy homes grant programs. Attendees will leave this session feeling empowered and inspired to make a positive impact in their communities.
