

Green Trades DC

Sponsored and run by the District of Columbia Department of Energy and Environment, in partnership with International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers Local 26

One of several DOEE Green Pathways, the Green Trades DC Program prepares District youth for rewarding careers in the electrical trades, with specific focus on skills related to solar and energy efficiency.

Green Trades offers TWO paths: 12-month and 48-month. Wages start at $24/hour in both paths.

12-month pre-apprenticeship:

- OJT and classroom learning prior to a full apprenticeship.
- Rolling applications

48-month electrical apprenticeship:

- Beginning of journey to become an electrician.
- Full benefits for apprentices and their families.
- Applications were due March 31,

The Green Trades DC program provides family-supporting wages and benefits from the beginning of training and sets you on the path to a well-paying and long-term career in your community that cannot be offshored.

The skills you leave with will improve energy resiliency and reliability, help lower utility bills, and keep homes safe.

Learn more on the DOEE website here!

How You Can Get Involved

Applicants must be 18 years or older, and a District resident.

For the apprenticeship, applicants must complete the IBEW Apprenticeship Test, submit their application before the deadline, and complete a potential interview.

Submit applications here.